John 12.37-50

God has graciously revealed to us many truths about himself, humankind, and the rest of creation that we would not otherwise know. He allows us to discover other truths in this world. Yet, God has not fully revealed everything to us. Mysteries still remain, truths that we do not yet fully understand. For instance, there are at least three mysteries that come to our attention in this passage...

Mystery #1: Why some do not _____

Mystery #2: Why some _____ from _____ more than _____ from _____

Mystery #3: How believing in Jesus _____
_____

Yes, there are many mysteries that remain. We do not know everything that we want to know. Yet, we can find security and contentment in what we DO know. Jesus said, "I know that his command is eternal life."
