John 13.18-38

In this portion of the story of the last Passover Jesus celebrated the night before he was crucified, three men are highlighted: Judas, Peter, and Jesus. Each had his own way of dealing with the stressful circumstances of the time, and each way brought a different outcome. While our outcomes may not be exactly the same as theirs were, there are certainly lessons we can learn from these men about the ways we choose in our own lives.
