John 13.1-17

The last Passover Jesus would commemorate before his death was a special time, a very emotional time for him. He said to his disciples, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.” The last Passover was likewise a special time, an emotional time, for those disciples. Shouldn't our remembrance of it be a special and emotional time for us as well?

In this first part of John's reflection on that last night of Jesus' earthly ministry, we encounter two truths to remember...

◆ _____ must serve _____ if you want to be a part of him.

◆ _____ must serve _____ if you want to be a part of him.

“If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.”
